

SESSION ONE AGENDA

Day one

- 14:00 Arrival
We look forward to meeting you all with refreshments at the Drumlanrig Castle Training Room.
- 14:30 Introduction
An overview of the course by Emma Cooper.
- 15:00 Landscape Leadership
An introduction to the course by Soil Association Scotland Deputy Director, David Michie.
- 15:15 My why
Being a great leader means knowing what motivates you and your organisation. This is an opportunity to consider your why and how this translates into action within your own context.
- 17:35 Organisational purpose
Shaping your organisation's purpose statement.
- 18:00 Break
Time to head to the Buccleuch & Queensberry Arms Hotel and check in to your rooms.
- 19:00 Dinner
Dinner will be at the Buccleuch & Queensberry Arms Hotel.
- 21:00 Guest speaker Andrew Marchant
Andrew explains what life is like as a tenant of Buccleuch Estate and talks all things deer farming.

Day two

- 08:45 Natural capital at Buccleuch Estate
A visit to the Buccleuch Estate exploring the concept of natural capital with Adrian Dolby, Head of Agriculture.
- Please meet at the Drumlanrig Castle Training Room carpark and be prepared to car share to the estate. This visit will be held outdoors.
- 11:00 Building on resources
A look at your own resources and how to build on past successes in identifying your goals.
- 12:20 Lunch
Enjoy!
- 13:00 Community engagement
Steve Evison explains how to engage with your community and shares his experiences of the Sea to Summit project.
- 13:50 Leadership skills
An introduction to leadership theory and an opportunity to consider your leadership skills.
- 15:20 Feedback
A quick round-up of the day.
- 15:30 Finish
We wish you all a safe journey home.